Conclusion

1. The total sales generated from all items is approximately $1.20M, indicating a strong overall business performance.
2. The average sales per transaction is $141, which reflects the average revenue earned per order.
3. A total of 8523 items have been sold, showing a good volume of product movement.
4. The average customer rating is 3.9, which indicates overall satisfactory customer feedback.
5. Sales by fat content show that Regular items contribute 64.6% ($776.3K) of total sales, while Low Fat items contribute 35.4% ($425.4K).
6. In terms of item types, categories like Fruits and Snacks generate the highest sales (~$0.2M each), making them top-performing segments.
7. Sales by outlet size indicate that Medium outlets contribute the highest share (42.3% / $507.9K), followed by Small and High-size outlets.
8. Based on outlet location, Tier 3 locations generate the highest sales ($472.13K), followed by Tier 2 and Tier 1.
9. The sales trend by outlet establishment year shows peak performance around 2018 ($205K), indicating strong growth during that period.
10. Among outlet types, Supermarket Type1 generates the highest sales ($787.5K) and the highest number of items sold (5577), making it the best-performing outlet type.
11. Overall, the business shows strong sales performance with balanced contributions from different product categories, outlet sizes, and locations, along with satisfactory customer ratings.